

Gaithersburg Youth Opportunities Coalition

The City of Gaithersburg Youth Opportunities Coalition, established in 2007, is comprised of agencies that partner with the City to provide a wide range of services for students in the Gaithersburg, including: Academic Advising, Community Involvement, Life Skills, Job Readiness Training, Mental Health & Wellness, Mentoring, Recreation. Through this partnership, GYOC provides a unified approach to positive youth development, optimizing resources and communication for those who work with teens.

Family Learning Solutions, Inc. 301.642.9273

An empathetic approach to student achievement, youth empowerment, and long-term success through bilingual tutoring support, mentoring programs, college preparation, and community engagement

Jewish Council for the Aging InterAges 301.949.3551

InterAges recruits, trains, and manages older adult volunteers as tutors and mentors, and provides volunteer opportunities to fulfill SSL hours or community service projects.

Soroptimist International of Upper Montgomery County (SIUMC) 301.949.5852

SIUMC is a volunteer organization for women whose mission is to improve the lives of women and girls through programs leading to social and economic empowerment, including the 'Dream It, Be It' program, as well as community service projects.

Gaithersburg Beloved Community Initiative 301.216.4090

GBCI forges intergenerational relationships and community partnerships to promote social justice, provide social emotional learning, and career development for children and youth.

Liberty's Promise 703.549.9950

Cultural acclimation through after-school civic engagement for English and non-English speaking immigrant youth. Additional programs include: Employment Assistance, Job Skills Training, and Paid Internships.

Sheppard Pratt

Sheppard Pratt Youth Services 240.683.6580 ext. 206 Keys to Success 301.840.3285 Guys of Gaithersburg Middle School 240.620.6921

Prevention and early intervention activities including positive youth development groups, mentoring, parent education workshops, short-term counseling, and specialized support programs such as therapeutic camps and clubs.

Identity, Inc.

Wellness Centers

GHS-301.284.4690

WMHS-240.406.1545

Upcounty Youth Opportunity Center 301.591.1790

Provides health clinic services, positive youth development programs, recreation, mental health, parent engagement, and case management at school sites, and offers a wide range services to out-of-school youth up to 25 years of age.

NAMI Montgomery County (NAMI MC) 301.949.5852

Provides mental health education, support and advocacy through 23 programs in English and Spanish. NAMI also offers Sources of Strength (SOS), a teen suicide prevention program.

Caring Matters 301.869.4673

Provides free social support services to adults and children facing life-threatening illness and grief. Services include non-medical hospice and grief support programs.

City of Gaithersburg

Youth Services—301.258.6350

Community Services—301.258.6395

Police Department—301.258.6400

